Youngsters of Bend Group Take Journey

PORTUGUESE BEND — More than 30 teen-agers whose parents belong to the Portuguese Bend Club enjoyed a day of skiing and tobogganing in the Big Pines area Saturday.

The group, which went to the area in a chartered bus, skied and tobogganed at both Table Mountain and Blue Ridge in the County recreational area. Mrs. William Donahover, chairman of the Club's Teen-Age Entertainment Committee and one of the tour's chaperones, reported that snow conditions were perfect.

The young winter sports enthusiasts lunched aboard the bus enroute to Big Pines and stopped off enroute for a spaghetti dinner and dancing. Youngsters enjoying the snow trip were from Palos Verdes Estates, Redondo Beach, Manhattan Beach, Portuguese Bend, Rolling Hills and San Pedro.

Color Styling to be Title of Lecture

"Color Styling for Your Home," is the title of the lecture-demonstration to be presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Harrold at this evening's meeting of the El Nido Parent's Association.

Social Dancing Class to Open At Torrance Hi

A free adult class in social dancing under Imogene Brothers, former Arthur Murray dance instructor, will be held each Monday and Wednesday nights in the library of Torrance High School starting at 7 o'clock.

Steps included in the course are: waltz, simple fox trot, rumba, tango, samba, mambo, and the New Yorker.

Since instruction is to a great extent of an individual basis, each student may proceed from where he is, and go as far as his interests take him.

Ground Broken for Walteria Baptists

Sunday was the climax of 9 months of planning by the building committee of the Walteria Baptist Church.

At the close of morning worship, it was recently announced, the congregation initiated their building program by the breaking of ground of the new church.

Rev. Duty announced that an additional sanctuary and Sunday school rooms would occupy the new building, which is being built on a pay-as-you-build plan.

He said that the building will be done in 5 steps and each will be paid for before it is begun.

Rev. Duty stated that with the help of volunteer labor and donations they hope to have the church completed by fall.
